Wake Up Councilmen The Party Is All Over!

CARROT TOP
By R. Robert Evans

For those who know him, Officer Christensen is a kind and gentle man. He has a very soft spot in his heart for all children. Although he has been called upon to save many lives while he has been an officer of the Sierra Madre Police, his eyes soften considerably when you mention a life of a child.

—CT—

"Children are so helpless, states Officer Christensen, and when they need help they have very little knowledge of 'self survival,' so when I get a call and know it is a little one, I have a 'Code' all of my own, and it certainly is much faster than 'Code 3.'"

—CT—

We certainly congratulate this man on saving the life of the 4th child in his line of duty. We are indeed fortunate to have him with us; we wish we had him on duty 24 hours a day, but then that would take him away from his own two children and family. We are thankful he is on the job five days a week.

—CT—

Of course, credit is a wonderful thing, but it does have a tendency to get all of us into deep trouble. Such is the case of an Arcadia man who had gotten himself head over heels in debt and finally came to the conclusion that he just couldn't make the grade, so he . . .

—CT—

Called a dozen of his creditors together to tell them that he was about to go into bankruptcy. "I owe you over $100,000," he said, "and my assets aren't enough to pay you ten cents on the dollar. So I guess it will be impossible for you to get anything . . ."

—CT—

"That is, unless you want to cut me up and divide me among you," Mr. Chairman, spoke up one creditor, "I move that we do just that . . . I'd like to have his gall." . . . and I do suppose many feel that way, but they shouldn't be in the credit business.

—CT—

Of course, I have a suggestion for those who persist and it is like a signboard that I recently saw in a store window:

—CT—

The preacher had come along and wrote upon the signboard: "I pray for all." The lawyer wrote underneath: "I plead for all."

—CT—

The doctor added: "I prescribe for all."

—CT—

Soon we should be hearing all the perussions about the new proposed Civic Center. Seems now, according to reports, the structure is estimated at 1½-million, and I doubt if this includes the moving. The Financing has been selected by the committee, and it will be without the vote of the people. Please understand the issue and its possibilities before you judge. It is a complicated method and does need some serious thoughts. If you do not understand them, ask and they will be explained further than the news columns.

—CT—

IT COULD . . . IF . . . It appears that the U. S. economy is doing pretty well in winning the "War on Poverty." Last year, half of all American families had annual incomes of more than $8,000 for the first time, according to the Council of Economic Advisers.

HOLD THE PHONE BOEHM

by R. Robert Evans

The following paragraph is a report to the newspapers, issued by City Administrator Norman Boehm: "At its November 18, 1968 meeting, the Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Development of the Sierra Madre Civic Center decided to recommend to the City Council that the City attempt to finance the Civic Center project by means of a general obligation bond issue at an early date. This action came, however, with the recommendation that Council make it clear that in the event the measure receives more than 50 per cent but fails to make the necessary 66 2/3 per cent that Council consider a majority vote sufficient authorization to proceed with an alternate method of financing such as a Civic Center authority or non-profit corporation."

Yes Sir Ree, Mr. Boehm. Just hold the phone for a minute. The Taxpayers will —Please turn to Page 11

Planning Unit Has Busy Schedule

The public hearing for a request for a Conditional Use Permit for a seven lot subdivision at the north end of Auburn was continued to next month, at the request of the applicant, Richter Builders, Inc.

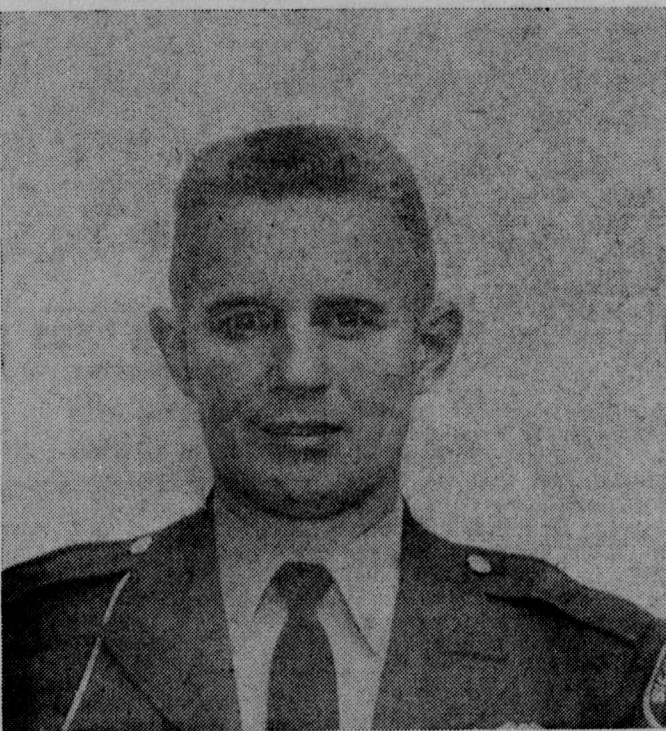

The hearing was being held before the Planning Commission at its meeting Thursday night. The item taking up most of the evening was the proposed cul de sac leading into the tract. It is proposed to widen the narrow easement road that now exists into a roadway that would more closely meet the code requirements.

Several existing properties are involved in the proposed widening and the City Staff was given the task of further study as to feasibility. Also a point of contention if a portion of land, owned by the developer but not included in the subdivision and because of its steep terrain a method will be sought to possibly prevent its future development.

The subdivision proposes to use 3.8 acres of approximately 7.36 acres available.

Sierra Madreans: Meet Officer Wayne Helie

OFFICER WAYNE H. HELIE
... A Family Man
by NANCY BRYAN

The Sierra Madre Police Department appointed Wayne H. Helie, December 1, 1967, as a member of their force. The frank and outgoing Helie is a native Californian, born in Hollywood and raised in the San Gabriel Valley.

Upon graduation from Mark Keppel High School in Alhambra, Wayne served three years with the U.S. Army with two of those years being spent in Germany as a D.I. (Drill Instructor) with the 527th Military Police Company in Mannheim. As soon as Wayne's wife, Mary Jacqueline graduated from high school she joined him in Germany for the remaining time he was there.

While always interested in police work, Officer Helie was equally interested in journalism. This seems natural enough, with seven years experience in printing — four in high school and three while in the service. (In the 50's some of Wayne's printing work was on display at the County Fair in Pomona.) Wayne loves both the writing end of journalism as well as the printing angle. At Ford Ord, California, he was company reporter for the 63rd Infantry Regiment and in Europe was both a reporter and Assistant Editor of "Look Ahead," a service publication. He was later a reporter for a company newspaper, "Big Idea" when he worked for United Parcel. Before going into police work of any kind, Helie wanted to get more education and also wanted to get his family settled, first. So after his military discharge in April, 1958, Helie and his small family settled in Covina. Married for 12½ years.

Drive Brings In 1695 Lbs. of Food

Led by the Adelphians, women's service organization at Pasadena City College, 75 members of Lancer service clubs recently collected 1,695 pounds of canned food to be turned over to Pasadena Welfare Board for distribution to needy families at Thanksgiving.

This topped the record 1,300 pounds collected last year. Collections were made by door-to-door calls in the community with members of Circle K, Spartans, Junior Executives and Omicron Mu Delta assisting Adelphians in their semi-annual drive.

Contributions ranged from the traditional cranberries to spray starch and cleaners, according to Denise Lutgen of Arcadia, Adelphian president, who was assisted in organizing the drive by Anne Stuart of Sierra Madre, vice president.

ANNE STUART OF SIERRA MADRE and George Blanchard of Pasadena were among 75 Pasadena City College students who collected 1695 pounds of canned goods for needy families at Thanksgiving in the semi-annual drive sponsored by Adelphians with the help of other service clubs.

EDITOR'S NOTE:—Postcards are now available that you can simply mark and send to the Council and Mayor, setting forth your desires. Ask for them now at the News Office or from other civic-minded persons. It's your only chance to stop this fiasco.

$200,000 Being Pirated From Water Department

We Need A New Civic Center — But Not A Marble Castle: Act Now!

Editorial

by R. Robert Evans

Since when has it become the policy of this Council, or any past Council, to encumber future Councils? This is what has been anticipated by City Administrator Norman Boehm when he says that the New Proposed Civic Center, costing 1-million four hundred and eighty-four thousand dollars, will be paid for out of ANTICIPATED FUTURE, Sales Tax, Motor Vehicle Tax, Cigarette Tax and Property Tax OVER THE NEXT 30-Years, based on an increase in population that he HOPES we will gain.

Administrator Boehm is simply "Whistling Dixie" when he said "We can afford to pay for it" and he believes that with an increase in population of 2000 people that the services to these people will not increase the operational expense. It is our estimate that this New Proposed Civic Center, spread over an area of 110,000 square feet, in wings and individual departments will increase the operational and maintenance cost of our city by over $100,000 per year. How can anyone encumber the future of our revenues used for operation and maintenance for the next 30-years and tell us that the tax rate of the property owner will not rise. If the Civic Center is built by this method and the anticipated tax does not materialize, we are obligated to pay the payments and it will fall upon the property owner to dig up the money.

Right off the start, in his report about financing, Administrator Boehm states, "We will increase the Parks and Recreation taxes from 22.5c per $100 valuation to the limit of 30c, and the Parks and Recreation will pay $17,000 on the new Civic Center as a repayment for the $100,000 teen center in Sierra Vista Park."

On this point alone, the Parks and Recreation is tied up; they cannot spend —Please turn to Page 14

Court of Honor Highlighted By Induction of 11

The Court of Honor of the Sierra Madre - Hastings Ranch area of the Rose Bowl District, held at the Willard School, was highlighted by a tenderfoot induction ceremony of 11 boys into Troop 372.

The Court was opened by Marcus Woodward, District Health and Safety Chairman, who, after the presentation of the colors by members of Troop 377 under the direction of Scott Bill Hutchins, gave the invocation.

Teen Center On the Way

At the regular meeting of the City Council held Tuesday evening, authorization was given the Mayor and City Clerk to sign the contract with the architects to start the working drawings for the new Teen Center, with the provision that they have the right to change or enlarge the meeting room within a two-week period, so that it would not possibly be a duplication of facilities in the new proposed Civic Center.

The Council also passed a resolution No. 2461 to authorize the reconstruction of Auburn Avenue from Sierra Madre Blvd. to Carter and that a public hearing be set for January 14. The Council passed the resolution 4 to 1, Councilman Rudolph voting in the negative.

Recommendation of City Administrator Boehm to either rent or purchase a trailer for $165 per month to be placed on the lot behind City Hall for the purpose of housing the overflow of —Please turn to Page 5

Firefighters Near Top In Their 3-Point Fund Drive

by R. Robert Evans
Public Relations Officer, Sierra Madre Fire Dept.

The most wonderful people in the world live right here in Sierra Madre, and that is the statement of every Firefighter of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department.

At this writing, and we still have four days yet to go, the contributions from the people of Sierra Madre are but a scant fraction of a percentage point of sending the boys over the top in the estimated amount that must be raised.

As probably everyone knows, the entire proceeds received from this fund drive will be placed in a separate account and be —Please turn to Page 7

BRIGHT RED SANTA CLAUS BOOTS stuffed with a variety of homemade cookies is just one of the items which will be available on the Christmas Caravan Home Tour. Helping to fill the boots are Mrs. Severin L. Sorensen of Sierra Madre (right), and Mrs. Robert M. Ashby (center) and Mrs. Ashby's daughter Janet. The Ashby home will be one of the five on the Dec. 4 tour, sponsored by the East Pasadena and Sierra Madre members of the Mormon Church.

'Christmas Caravan' Home Tour Promises Gift, Decorating Ideas

Five beautiful homes in the East Pasadena area will be open for visiting Wednesday, December 4 for the "Christmas Caravan" home tour, sponsored by the East Pasadena Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon). The congregation includes many Sierra Madreans who are busy working on preparations for the tour. The Christmas Caravan is for the purpose of raising funds for extensive additions to the church, located on Sierra Madre Villa in Pasadena.

A treasury of holiday decorating and gift ideas will be displayed in the homes, which will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Three of the homes will have boutiques featuring a wide assortment of Christmas gifts and goodies.

Refreshments will be served to all tour guests in two locations. Members of the church have been working for months to prepare such specialties as hand-tied quilt-sleeping bags, cookies from family recipes pre-wrapped in bright red felt Santa boots, and homemade bread wrapped on —Please turn to Page 14

PHS Band Wins Coveted Sweepstakes

Amassing a total score of 96.15 out of a possible 100, the Pasadena High School Marching Band was awarded the coveted Sweepstakes Trophy at ceremonies concluding the West Arcadia Invitational Band Review on Saturday, November 23. Over three dozen southland high schools participated. In addition to the major award, the Pasadena percussion section captured first place in the drum competition, held at Arcadia High's football field, immediately following the morning parade down Baldwin Avenue.

Quoted after the award ceremony, Drum Major Craig Smith, of Sierra Madre, said, "This is cool. We've really worked hard to win this trophy."

Fire Calls No. 61 - 62

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Firefighters were called into action Saturday at the hour of 12:18 to Memorial Park.

Engine 424 arrived in 2 minutes and 38 seconds after the alarm to find that a party or parties unknown had set a roll of toilet paper afire and tossed it into the trash barrel and closed the door. Smoke was pouring out of the restroom. Police Officer Kolb had removed the trash can to the outside, which was extinguished by the firefighters. Fifteen regular firefighters and one reserve answered the call. Captain Brennan, in charge of the call, determined no damage and released the firefighters and equipment at 12:30.

Again at 1:54 in the afternoon of Saturday, the Firefighters were called into action to the corner of Grove and Highland. Engine 424 arrived in 2 minutes.

Poetry Contest Announced

The attention of local writers is drawn to the announcement of an Annual Poetry Contest sponsored by the Foothill Areas Association of Sierra Madre. Deadline for the event will be December 18 and entries may be submitted to the Sierra Madre Library, 440 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Poems will be accepted under three categories: free verse, rhyme and poems of Sierra Madre, and must be original unpublished works of the author. Entries should be typed on plain 8x10 paper with the name, address and phone number of the contestant on the outer face of the envelope only. Twenty-five dollars is offered as first prize, and other cash awards have been contributed by local merchants and businessmen. The winning poems will be read over Radio Station KMAX on Christmas Eve.

It has come — the time of the year when we stop and reflect our blessings and the time to be thankful for the things that make our lives good.

For some it might be the things they have, cars, boats, affluence. For others it might be the things they have done, and some are thankful to God for what he has given them. For all there is a good deal for which to be thankful. I am thankful for living in this exciting period of our country's history. To have gone from an icebox to a refrigerator-freezer combination, from the crystal set to solid state transmission with living color, from 6 cylinder cars to rockets to the moon, from aspirin to penicillin, from thinking there could be no more progress to thinking that it will never end.

We are living in almost miraculous times where life can be extended beyond one heart and maybe even two in time.

True, we are living in troubled times just as each era that has gone before has survived. Although the solution is not yet clearly defined this too will pass and be replaced with something else. It is sad but human that so much valuable time must be spent in useless agitation when there is so much to appreciate and enjoy.

When we bow our heads in prayer we will give thanks to God, not for our crops and bountiful harvest as our forefathers did before us, but for our children and the blessings that we and they receive in this land of unlimited opportunity.

This has been a week for returning travelers. Chuck and Margaret Klingerman returned home after a six weeks trip to the Orient. They started out on October 6th and flew to Honolulu where they visited overnight with their niece and brand new grand-niece. From there they flew on to Tokyo where they stayed for four days. This was an architectural tour and they were in a group of 16 people from all over the country. One of the highlights in Tokyo was their luncheon in the world famous Chin-zan-So gardens.

From there they traveled on to the Hakone mountain area and then on to Ito, for a couple of days and to Tobia for a brief period. Their next stop was for seven days in Kyoto.

They had the rare opportunity to spend an evening with a famous Japanese artist Raku-san Tsuchiya and his wife, Margaret said it was a little hard on their knees and although their hosts kept urging to make themselves comfortable there was no way that their western bones could have been made easy, except to stand up or sit in a chair. However it was a privilege to share in their hospitality and to witness the old Japanese customs.

From there they stopped for a brief period in Hiroshima, made a one day stop in Okayama, Takamatsu, Osaka, and back to Tokyo for three more days before leaving for a shopping spree in Hong Kong. As long as they had traveled that distance they felt they should visit Bangkok which was interesting, but less charming than Japan.

Their last stop before returning to the Hawaiian Islands was a four day stop over in Taipei, Tiwan where they visited with old Arcadia friends, John and Grace Densmore who are living there now.

They eased themselves back into the states by spending a week island hopping and visiting friends in the islands.

It was a wonderful month to be visiting in Japan as October is the month when they traditionally bus the children all over the country to see the sights. The children all wear uniforms and are extremely friendly and well mannered. They were charmed with the Japanese country side and the people. Although there was a great deal of poverty in many places they visited, people were always immaculately clean and their homes, however humble, were well tended as were their gardens.

They were invited to a private Buddhist ceremony in the Jakoin Temple up in the hills of Kyoto. It was given by a Buddhist nun

Girl Scout Troop No. 600 To Carol And Help At Convalescent Homes

The coming holidays and the weekends of the new year will be brightened for those living at "The Cloisters," a rest and convalescent home at 1470 N. Fair Oaks, Pasadena. Twenty-three Cadette Girl Scouts from Troop 600, sponsored by the Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 2660 E. Orange Grove, Pasadena, have selected as their Service Project the visiting of the elderly and the ill at The Cloisters. The girls will go in groups of four, under the guidance of Mrs. James Heltsley, and will perform whatever services might be requested, such as writing letters, reading, wheeling patients, or providing cheery conversation.

The troop's Community Project for the year will be to consolidate all five of Assumption's troops for Christmas caroling. The combined troops and their fathers will attend five o'clock Mass at Assumption on December 15, after which they will go caroling at five convalescent homes. The Scouts will distribute boxes of home-made Christmas cookies at each home visited.

The leader of Troop 600 is Mrs. Francis Fox, assisted by Mrs. Daniel Entrup, Mrs.
James Heltsley and Mrs.
Larry Elfelt. The members of the troop are as follows:

Nonie Burch, Doreen Dumas,
Mary Martha Elfelt, Cindy
Entrup, Ruth Ann Ford, Ann
Louise Fox, Debra Frisina, Claire Hahn, Tina Heltsley, Natalie Joy, Nancy Linnan, who offered prayers for world peace. After the ceremony she invited them into her home for tea and presented them with small gifts.

As for the architecture, it was a refreshing change from their last tour which took them all over Europe.

Gene and Katherine Koch returned last week from a week's trip to Montego Bay in Jamaica to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. They stayed at the Half Moon Hotel and recommend it highly for sheer relaxation and charm.

John and Harriet Fincke returned from 12 days in the Islands. They started out on the Island of Hawaii, spending their first two nights luxuriating at the Mauna Kea Hotel. They also managed to go see the volcano which they felt was one of the highlights of their trip, and to go through some of the lava tubes on the island.

They went from there to Maui for a few days, then to Kauai, and finally to Waikiki Beach for a few days before flying home.

People are really wonderful! Mr. Charles Talmadge Sanders of 335 Acacia Street has financially "adopted"
Sergio Macias, a 10-year-old Ecuadorian boy, through Foster Parents Plan, Inc. As most of us know, under this plan, the Foster Parent's responsibility is financial, not legal and the child grows up within his own family.
Three cheers for Mr. Sanders!

Alpha Chi Omega (NPC)
Alumnae Daytime group will meet at 11 a.m. Tuesday, December 3, at the home of Mrs. Frank Marshall, 1116 Armada Dr., Pasadena. Luncheon will follow the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Sidney

This will be the day group's Christmas meeting.
The Rev. Dr. Crawford
Brown, retired rector of Church of Our Saviour in San Gabriel, will present the program which will be a talk on the Holy Land, illustrated with colored slides.

Early during World War II, while he was Dean of the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., Dr. Brown was called upon to organize the Chaplain Service for all the ships in the Navy. He is well known in the Pas-

Lord Jesus Doctor Of Us All

When sorrow and anguish creep into my soul,
I know of a remedy ever so old,
My mother once taught me when I was a child.

To seek out the Saviour, so tender and mild
He will banish your sorrow, suffer your pain
No matter how often you call on His name.

So give Him a trial, this Doctor of mine,
Who's name is Lord Jesus, so tender divine;
Don't make an appointment, just go right away
His office is open throughout the whole day.

But wait, I will go with you, it is not very far Just think of the Saviour and pray where you are;
He is patiently waiting to answer your call
This Doctor Lord Jesus, Lord of us all.

personnel was postponed until the Personnel Committee could report on the additional personnel and the study of Ordinances that would be in conflict with this desire. As an alternate, Boehm recommended that they could purchase the trailer for $6,200, sell it at the end of its use and come up with a cost of approximately $2,700. It would take $650 to prepare the trailer for office space. This item will be on the agenda again December 10.

Since Miss Marjorie Bradley had appealed the variance granted for the Don Konkler swimming pool by the Zoning Board on November 7, the Council by motion 5-0 set the hearing for the appeal on December 10. Miss Bradley asked that the hearing be postponed until the second meeting of December, but, with the possibility of no quorum, and the hearing having to be within 40 days of the date of the filing of the appeal made it necessary that it be heard in 1968 and the Council did not want to take the chance of defaulting.

You and Your Neighbor

by NANCY BRYAN

How would you like to pay a phone bill that included a call from Hong Kong? Well, James and Ann Tyler of 223 San Gabriel Court will soon be faced with that, however they don't seem too concerned as they go to talk with their son, Patrick, who was in Hong Kong on "R and R." Patrick, who is a Sgt. in the AF stationed in Nha Trank in Vietnam, has extended another 6 months. He expects to get home on leave in March and then it's "out" in June. Richard Lindekens, son of SM Police Officer Al Lindekens was with Pat on "R and R" in Hong Kong and the two of them plan a trip to Australia in February on another "R and R." Bet the bill for the Hong Kong call will be well worth it!

There will be 21 turkey eaters at the Seth and Josephine (Nee La Lone) Van Wickle home at 252 Ramona this Thanksgiving Day. Later in the evening, a few more will join for a family type get together bringing the total guests to 35. This annual family reunion dinner will again be a pot luck style feast, with much fun, singing and visiting. Those expected for dinner: Seth and Josephine's son, Frank and Joanie and their family from Duarte; son, Fred and Andy and their family of Sierra Madre; Josephine's sister, Charles and Frances Finley and Roz from Long Beach; the Finley's son, Jeff and his family also from Long Beach; Josephine's brothers Earl La Lone and family from Sierra Madre and Robert La Lone and family from Duarte; and niece, Christine McCaron of Long Beach. Also: Josephine's brother, Edward La Lone and family from Sierra Madre; her brother-in-law Alfred Domschke and his daughter Sue, from Pasadena; and nephew Tim and Donna McCaron from Long Beach.

Among those dropping by later: Another of Josephine's brothers, Joel and Diane La Lone and family from Duarte; and niece, George and Polly Gruber and family, also from Duarte.

Two members of the La Lone family unable to be with family members this day are: Josephine's sister, Alice and her brother, Julian. Neal and Alice McCaron of Long Beach are spending Thanksgiving with their daughter in San Francisco and Julian and Dorothy La Lone of Sierra Madre are in Ann Arbor, Michigan eating turkey dinner with son, Darrel and daughter, Annula, where both are attending the University of Michigan.

The Hasty Hens Club of Lower Hastings had a fun party the other night. On Saturday evening, November 23, the club held a sit-down dinner for 40 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGiven on Michillinda. The dinner, a catered affair, was authentic Indonesian with a Balinese Theme. Tables were all decorated with fresh flowers mounted in tiers similar to a Balinese dancer's headpiece and the entertainment was an authentic Balinese dancer. Committee for the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Grant Otten, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Stable, Mr. and Mrs. Jim

Miss Drachman Has Lead In Play

Prudence Drachman, sophomore speech major, will play a leading role of the daughter Sorel in the Noel Coward comedy "Hay Fever," second production of the Pasadena City College Theatre Arts Association in the campus Little Theatre December 5, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 14, at 8:15 p.m. and December 12 at 2:30 p.m. Sorel is the offbeat daughter of the unconventional Bliss family comprising novelist father, actress mother, and brother Simon. Each invites a guest for the weekend and the resultant farce has been called one of the "funniest comedies of this century — or any century."

Coward mixes the guests up with different partners, to their bewilderment; and Sorel and Simon intent on doing their own thing are caught up in the absurdities of the strange weekend.

Prudence graduated from Indio High, spent a year at College of the Desert and a semester at Eastern Michigan University. She appeared in drama productions at school and with a professional group in Palm Springs.

After graduation from PCC she plans to continue at the university to prepare for teaching at a junior college. She enjoys skiing, swimming, and tennis; and plays the guitar, piano, and trumpet.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hill, Jr., 319 Sierra Madre Blvd.

Fire Calls

utes 49 seconds to find that one of Santa's sleighs had caught fire, but was partially extinguished.

Fourteen regular firefighters answered this call, used dry chemical fire extinguisher to douse the balance of the fire. The cause was determined by Assistant Fire Chief Goodall as an electrical short in the wiring which was laying on the manifold of a portable generator of the equipment.

Assistant Chief Goodall determined the damage as under $100 and released the men and equipment at 2:20 o'clock. These two calls were Fire Suppression calls number 61 and 62, which exceeds last year's total calls of 60. This also exceeds the Fire Prevention calls of last year with a total of 63, but now stands at 70 for this year.

Friendship Club
The Friendship Club had their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Lola Bullock, 42 Windsor Lane. Twelve ladies were present and they planned for a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. McGills. Tea was served by the hostess and the time was spent in visiting. According to the ladies, "They had lots of visiting to do, they all seemed happy and enjoyed each other; it was a lovely day and they went home happy after seeing their old friends."

Neighbors

November 19 marked the third wedding anniversary for Deane and Helen McClure of Hermosa Avenue. However, they observed the occasion on Sunday, November 17 with an evening out, starting at a nearby restaurant with a prime rib dinner. (Yummy!) Part of the reason for celebrating early was that Gran'ma Holder of Downey was able to babysit with her new baby granddaughter, Heather Jo. Little Heather was born on November 5 and that is still too young, as far as grandmothers are concerned, to be entrusted to the care of anyone other than grandmothers! On the actual anniversary date, Helen prepared an extra special dinner, including a special cake, for just the three of them. (The three of them??) The place of the McClures' marriage three years ago was Monte bello. Congratulations to you both . . . and much happiness to you always!

The William Hogue family spend most of their idle hours working on their home, one of many fine old Sierra Madre residences still remaining. This is a pastime that is a labor of love as far as the Hagues are concerned. Bill, a lieutenant with the Los Angeles Police Department, doesn't have too many of those idle hours left after "policing" and teaching one night a week at Long Beach State College. What does he teach? "Police Science," of course!

Late birthday greetings to little Jimmy Banis who was 3 years old on November 11. Big brother, Joe Banis, Jr. returned Wednesday evening, November 20 from the East where he had gone for interviews at four different medical schools. A pre-med student at Loyola University, Joe will be graduating this next June. Both are sons of Joe and Eunice Banis of Montecito Avenue. A family Thanksgiving will have just the immediate family around the table. This includes: Joe, Jr.; Dave, 17½; Dan, 11; Susan, 16; Jim, 3, and "Granny" Banis. Only member of the family not present will be married daughter, Patty, who lives in England.

Family get-togethers are a traditional thing on holidays. Thanksgiving is no exception for Clem and Nina Bartoli who will be observing Turkey Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shearer of Sierra Madre, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boyd, aunts and uncles. The Bartoli children, almost-6 Renee Lea and 3-year-old List Michelle, will be there, too. It will be a happy day for all with the usual feast, a potluck dinner that has become a family tradition! Happy day to you all!

Telephone Books Delivered This Week, Says GT Staff

If distribution lists are a true indication, General Telephone Co. has a "best seller" in the Monrovia and Sierra Madre area this week. Delivery of 28,500 new Northeastern Section directories begins on Tuesday, Nov. 26, and will be completed the following Tuesday.

"The Monrovia area directory includes classified yellow pages for Monrovia, Duarte and Bradbury, along with portions of Arcadia, Azusa, El Monte and Irwindale," says Henry A. Schull, Monrovia division manager for General Telephone.

"The Sierra Madre area directory has the classified pages for Sierra Madre, with portions of Arcadia and Pasadena also included," he continued. "The alpha, or white, pages are identical in both directories."

Delivery men are instructed to ring each doorbell and hand-deliver the book. If no one is at home, the book will then be left at the doorstep.

"This year we are trying to emphasize the proper use of these valuable books," Schull continued. "Since they belong to the customer, he is free to underline often dialed numbers, and should write new listings in the 'Frequently Called Numbers' space on the last page of the directory."

"Studies we have made indicate that the quickest way for anyone to locate the number they wish to find is to look it up themselves," he said. "Many people

Happy birthday greetings to two of our favorites: Gordon Gulack and John Cacopardo, of the produce department of Roberts Market, both of whom had birthdays on Wednesday, November 20. A little celebration at work, in the way of cake and coffee during the coffee-break reminded the two that another year was added to their ages. Ah, you are both still young and handsome looking! Happy Birthday, again!

Free Concert
The Arizona State University Sun Devil Band will present a free concert on Friday, Dec. 6, at 8 p.m. in the Pasadena High School Auditorium. The group will be in the San Gabriel Valley to participate in the Pasadena Band Review on the following day. A special invitation is extended to all ASU alumni living in the Sierra Madre vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Barbara) Bartolme, 911 Fallen Leaf, will have as their Thanksgiving Day guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purcell, former neighbors, now of Brentwood. Rest of the Bartolme family, Wayne, Donna, Barbara and Mary, will be around the dinner table, too.

Somehow we missed saying "Happy twenty-third Anniversary" to Bob and Jeannette Heasley. They were married in Lakewood, California on October 9, 1945. Anyway, "better late than never" so "Happy Anniversary" and many more!

Stephen and Donna (nee Barclay) Mettler of Pasadena held a family Thanksgiving dinner at their home on Holly. Guests will be: Donna's parents, James and Thelma Barclay; her sister, Gloria; her 4-year-old brother, Donald, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Gertrude Smith. All are from Sierra Madre. Ten-month-old Mark Mettler probably won't get to chom on the drumstick this year, but he'll be on hand, nevertheless.

Sirens Blow Fri. 10 A.M.

Civil defense sirens of Los Angeles County and the City of Sierra Madre will be sounded in a combined test of the warning systems, as is customary on the last Friday of the month, at 10 a.m., November 29, Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess announced. As usual, the test will consist of the undulating tone being sounded for one minute. The sirens would be sounded in the same undulating tone for from three to five minutes in the event of an actual enemy attack, Pitchess added.

Firefighters Near Top In Fund Drive

used exclusively for three programs sponsored by the Sierra Madre Firefighters. 1. The annual Christmas Party, Christmas Eve for the children of the community and area attending. 2. For the annual Easter Egg Hunt in Memorial Park the Saturday before Easter, and 3. To provide food baskets for the less fortunate, who may be having tough sledding and find the table bare at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The three-point program will be carried out to the fullest extent, this to the people of the community have assured the Firefighters.

In checking over the long list of recipients of the pink envelope and tickets with Secretary Don Burleson, it is found that close to 1500 citizens can still be heard from in the next four days, and the Firefighters do wish that they would hurry and send in their Green Envelopes and attend the Dance on Saturday evening.

Again this year the dance will be held at the La Salle High School, where more room is available to accommodate the crowd. The Firefighters have secured the Los Angeles City Firefighters "Hook and Ladder" Orchestra, and they are a group that know what the friends of Firefighters want in good, lively music.

Firefighters Graves and Buchanan, have taken into consideration the lively crowd that will be present and are providing a few snacks here and there about the dance room, and of course, will have refreshing beverages at your disposal. Decorations under the supervision of Firefighter Evans, has been capably taken over by a most congenial person by the name of Donald Konkler, and his dear wife, Irene will be the maker of beautiful table center pieces. Mr. Konkler will also set the Christmas tree and its decorations, all of which will place the setting of the dance floor in the gayest of Christmas spirits.

Your Firefighters will all be there in their familiar "Dress Blues" proud to welcome you to one of the greatest occasions of the year.

People of Sierra Madre, you have made your Firefighters a happy, happy group, you have come through for them when they ask. They will forever be indebted to you in the months ahead, and should you be available for the Christmas Eve party, you will indeed be proud of what you have helped them accomplish. . . # Beat the phone company out of a couple of bucks.

Wait till after 7 p.m. and call anywhere in the country for a dollar.

A lot of long distance callers would be in seventh heaven if they could put one over on the phone company.

Because they think we're putting one over on them.

Their gripe is that they're paying more for calling long distance during the day than in the evening hours.

But since most people insist on calling during the day, our overhead goes up, up, up. So our prices can't go down, down, down. And that's why we charge our regular rates.

But at nighttime, we can practically hear a pin drop. Hardly anybody calls long distance, so hardly any equipment is being used.

And that's when any long distance caller can beat us out of a couple of bucks.

Because if you can wait till after 7 p.m. or any time of the day on Saturday and Sunday, you can call anybody, anywhere in the country for a dollar or less.*

So you don't really need a lot of money to call long distance.

All you need is a little patience.

Sierra Madeans: Meet Officer Helie

Wayne and Mary Jacqueline now have three wonderful children, Lori Lee, 9½; Cristi Ann, 7½; and Jeffrey Wayne, 6 months. During the years before he joined the SMPD, Wayne worked for United Parcel as a driver and then as a salesman for the company that makes "the noisiest potato chips in the world." He also was with the Azusa Police Reserve for eight months. A couple of part time jobs were held while he attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, where he just recently received his AA degree.

This was indeed a proud moment for Wayne, and he claims it as one of the highlights of his life. What made it doubly so, was the fact that his wife and two small daughters were present for the occasion. "Being able to further your education no matter what your age is a marvelous thing," states Wayne, who intends to impress upon his children this philosophy.

He wouldn't be able to have managed the school schedule and all the studying if his family hadn't been such an inspiration. Wayne will be going to Cal State next quarter in preparation to earning his BS in Police Science.

A certified life guard and swimming instructor, Wayne also like football, baseball, basketball and working on cars. Incidentally, both daughters are accomplished swimmers for their ages, thanks to their dad. Working around his home and just being with his family rate high with this family man.

Women Golfers Win Trophy

Play for the "Investors Savings & Loan Association's" perpetual trophy was the event of the day for Eaton Canyon Women's Golf Club.

It was a two low ball foursome tournament. The winners with a net score of 105 were Kay Neves, Ann Parth, Ann Kessler and Nell Schellman.

Pictures of the winners were taken with the beautiful trophy by representatives of Investors Savings & Loan Association.

Reception To Honor Elected Officials Dec. 3

Elected officials from Pasadena and neighboring communities will be honored guests at a champagne reception given by members of the League of Women Voters of Pasadena Tuesday, Dec. 3, at 7:30 p.m. at the Charles Stinson home, 435 San Rafael, Pasadena.

Invitations have been extended to federal, state, county and local government officials and school board members from Pasadena, Altadena, La Canada, San Marino, Sierra Madre and Temple City, it was announced by reception chairman, Mrs. La Verne Lowe. Her committee includes Mmes. George Hand, Thomas Hight, James Kendall, Skipper Rostker and Henry Shaford.

This is the second time that League members and their husbands have marked the end of an election season with a social function. This year's voter information activities by the League of Women Voters were led by Mrs. Donald Knox and involved the distribution of many candidates' questionnaires, pros and cons, and speakers explaining ballot measures.

Rose Float Ass'n Start Fund Drive

Sierra Madre Rose Float Association official sweat-shirts will be on sale again this year, at the reduced price of $2 each. Art's Pet Shop, Sierra Madre Hardware and Youngland will display the shirts which have the name of the organization on the back and have been sold by the Float Association for the past several years. Canvassing of the town for donations in return for a symbolic antenna rose will begin this week, according to Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. Ruth Barden and Rose Chairman Mrs. Tony Harris.

Treasurer Bob Conner and Construction Chairman Carl Griffin have established a cost of $5,000 for "Joy of Youth," our entry in the Tournament of Roses Parade, and these fund-raising projects must raise a large portion of this amount. Watch for members to bring a lovely rose to your door and welcome them.

Sadie B. Evans Succumbs At 90

Sadie Baird Evans of 365 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. passed away November 21 at the Sierra Madre Community Hospital. A native of Illinois living in California since 1944, the 90-year-old housewife had resided in this city since 1946.

Two daughters and four sons survive the death of their mother. They are: Mrs. Nettie Hall of Florida; Mrs. Lillian Richardson of Waukegan, Ill.; Clayton Baird, Dale Baird and George Baird, all of Waukegan, Ill., and Eugene R. Baird of Sierra Madre.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 23, at Riple Mortuary, with the Rev. Hugh S. Bell Jr. officiating. Interment, which was private, was at Mt. View Cemetery in Altadena.

Rites Held For Helene Bawden

Funeral services for Helene Irma Bawden were held at 2 p.m. at Riple Mortuary on Monday, November 25. The 71-year-old housewife passed away on November 21 at the Sierra Madre Community Hospital.

Originally from Sacramento, Mrs. Bawden resided in this city for the last 49 years and was living at 312 N. Grove St. at the time of her demise.

Left to mourn her passing are: her husband, William Bawden of the Sierra Madre address, and four daughters, Mrs. Josephine Osborn of Whittier; Mrs. Josephine Boydston of Eureka; Mrs. Ethel Thonney of Dayton, Wash., and Mrs. Grace Wilson of Minneapolis, Minn. In addition, she leaves 11 grandchildren.

Interment was at Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Herb and Dorothy Seifert of 464 East Highland both had birthdays in November. His November 4 and hers, November 17. They had planned a birthday trip to Palm Springs but canceled when the wind got too much so. Instead, close friend, Mrs. Helen Haas, hosted a birthday dinner at the Huntington for them and Mrs. Kenneth Pickett, who also celebrated her natal anniversary in the month of November. Other guests at the dinner were Mr. Kenneth Pickett, Mrs. Belle Reiber and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Call, all of Sierra Madre. Well, three happy cheers for the birthday trio!

Out of the Cobwebs

Sixty Years Ago:

November 20, 1908

All the young burro jockeys in town are preparing for the big burro races to be held on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day. There will be two events, one for speed and other a time-killer. The speed event will be run on Central Ave. from Mountain Trail to Baldwin and return. For this there will be three prizes of $5, $3 and $2 in cash or something of equivalent value. All who saw the burro races on Mountain Trail Ave. last spring will be anxious to see a repetition of the events. The second event will be a "slow" race from Baldwin to Mountain Trail. Every burro must keep moving ahead all the time and everyone allowed to stop will be disqualified. The riders taking the longest time for the journey will get the prizes which will be a punching bag and fountain pen. Mr. Charles J. Fox will select the officials and Mr. Henry Potter has already been chosen to have charge of the course. The events will start at 3:30 p.m. sharp.

Tomorrow will be a red letter day in the history of Pomona College. The day will witness the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the college by the dedication of three new buildings of which any college might be proud.

Mrs. Florence Cheney left yesterday morning for Salt Lake City where she will remain for some time.

Miss Laura Latten, a schoolmate of Miss Charline Baker at Marlborough, was a guest at "Glen Caim" this week.

Mr. E. B. VanZandt has purchased the Hotel Shirley business, having taken possession Tuesday, and the smiling countenance of Landlord Wood will be in evidence there no more. Mr. VanZandt proposes to conduct a first-class hotel and solicits the patronage of those desiring first-class accommodations.

Mrs. A. B. Stickney and the baby have arrived to gladden the heart of Mr. Stickney at the home on Highland Ave.

Adolphus Kershaw and Hicks Thornburg went duck hunting near Long Beach the past week, returning with both ducks and snipe as trophies of the hunt.

Dick Rasmussen is experiencing the joy of having his whole face exposed to the open air after having most of it covered with bandages while treating a carbuncle on his upper lip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stilson are now at home in their cozy new bungalow, just completed on Hermosa Ave. between Laurel and Grand View.

The Sierra Madre baseball team will cross bats on Sunday with a team of Japs from Los Angeles, and a fierce game is promised.

Harold Pegler, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Pegler, had a fall early in the week that kept him in bed for several days. While climbing the tower of a water tank he fell to the ground and sustained severe bruises and a general shaking up. He is now able to be out of bed, having fortunately escaped any permanent injury.

Forty Years Ago:

November 23, 1928

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gore of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Dallas Jones of Nashville, Tenn., drove over from Beverly Hills to be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albrecht this week.

Announcement is made this week of important additions to the personnel of the Sierra Madre Electric Co. G. I. Farman, who has been at the head of this pioneer electric establishment from the start, has obtained the services of Miss Eleanor Allcutt, an expert in home economics. She will be in charge of the salesroom, where housewives will find her counsel of particular value. Walter J. Ropp, who moved to Pasadena some months ago, has returned to Sierra Madre and will be associated with Mr. Farman in the contracting and service departments. With this new lineup, Mr. Farman feels the Sierra Madre Electric Co. will be able to give the best of service in all departments of business.

One of the interesting sights along Central Ave. these days is a magnificent tree dahlia in the yard of the Norris home, the "tree" having reached a height of about ten feet and being a veritable mass of blooms. Every year, according to Mr. Norris, the tree is cut down to the ground, and then proceeds to grow so rapidly in the spring that its height is acquired in a comparatively short time.

It's now "Mayor Lawless." William J. Lawless, 506 W. Grand View, was elected by the Council to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Wilbur F. Thayer Jr. from the Council. The choice was made at Tuesday afternoon's special meeting of the board.

On Wednesday Mrs. Hartvig B. Henry of South Pasadena spent the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halstrum, the occasion being the celebration of their 34th wedding anniversary. Mr. Henry drove over in the evening.

The San Gabriel dam contract has been let to Fisher, Ross, Kahn and MacDonald on their estimate of $11,250,000. The contractors will supply their own rock and gravel. The dam, which will be the largest in the world, will cost, complete, about $25,000,000 and will be finished in five years.

A scale model of Sierra Madre's float for the Tournament of Roses Jan. 1 shows favorite storybook characters. Titled "Adventure Stories," the float will contain the figures of a pirate captain, Little Red Riding Hood, Tom Sawyer and Pinocchio. It was designed by Bernard Wynn, Float Association art director, and the scale model shown here was made by Manuel de la Torre, construction chairman.

Some 600,000 families moved out of the official poverty category last year, leaving 5.3 million in that classification out of the nation's total of 49.8 million families.

—CT—
 It looks as if the private enterprise, free market economy, will be able to eliminate poverty in the United States on its own hook and have enough left over to take care of the handicapped, elderly and totally unemployable as well. That is, it could if government can control itself to the extent of not bankrupting the country with deficit spending or regulating and regimenting the productivity out of our economic system.

—CT—
 George Snyder, owner of the Antique Store next door, almost killed me the other day, in fact, the looks he gave me did kill my spirit for the whole day and all I did was walk into his store and with a friendly smile and say, "What's new?" Well, as I have often been told, there are days when you just can't lay up a cent.

—CT—
 Just like I said to Norman Boehm, he's our City Administrator. I said, "Norman, have you ever been troubled with diphtheria?" and his answer to me was, "Only when I try to spell it." You know, I should have stayed in bed that day, I would have accomplished a lot more.

—CT—
 Anyway, I have spent time, energy and space, so it is time to close up the column for the week and will leave you with this message... There's been a lot of conversation about the press sticking its nose too deeply into the news.

—CT—
 True, there are media people who overstep the bounds of good taste, as those in other activities do, too, but if the press didn't expose most of the things that are exposed today... who would? Pretty soon everything, including what you see and think, would be controlled... Editorial: "Once upon a time people saved their money, thinking it would be worth more later." End of editorial, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Ernest Lacy has been awarded first place for his painting "Still Life" in the fourth annual Purchase prize competition now at the Library.

Anna and Bryce Tyler have swept out the last of the sawdust and are settling back to enjoy the holidays in their newly remodeled living room and kitchen. This family "do it yourself" task (Bryce is the carpenter; Anna, the painter) began in July, 1957. Come spring, they'll start in again on the patio, baths and more bedroom space for their daughter and four sons.

John W. Lorenzini, 611 E. Grand View, has returned from a six-month visit abroad to the British Isles and 17 other countries. He was accompanied by Frank Decot of Buffalo, N.Y. They purchased a car in Bremen, Germany, and toured the country, camping out most of the time. In all the time they were gone, they stayed in only 15 hotels.

Mrs. John Chapman of Old House Road returned last week from a five-day trip to St. Louis where she celebrated her birthday with her parents and her sister.

Hold The Phone Mr. Boehm

definitely not let you interpret that they want a 1½-Million Dollar Civic Center, should the Council go to ballot on "General Obligation Bonds," and they fail to get the 66 2/3 majority, but do go over the 50 per cent.

After talking with taxpayer after taxpayer, we find that they are receptive to a new Civic Center, most of them are not too happy with the location, but they are definite that they do not want the "Marble Hall" type of Civic Center.

We suggest that the City Council, immediately go into conference with their City Attorney, maybe we can have a tri-question on the ballot such as (1) Do you want a General Obligation Bond in the amount of 1½-Million to build the new Civic Center? (2) Do you want a Civic Center on a "Pay As You Go Basis, with no more than $750,000 expenditure for the first phase?" (3) Do you want a New Civic Center costing 1½-million financed in another method than the General Obligation Bonds?

Personally, we feel that you have "muddled" the waters so bad that the Taxpayers will be unable to see through the propositions whatsoever... Maybe we had better start thinking of building a jail and fire facilities at 55 West Sierra Madre Blvd., and think about the Civic Center later.

and merit badges were presented to members of Troop 372 (St. Rita's Catholic Church), Troop 374 (Trinity Presbyterian Church); Troop 377 (Eugene Field PTA), and Troop 381 (Sierra Madre PTA).

Advancements to the rank of Star Scout were presented by Delbert A. Raby, District Executive of the Rose Bowl District, to Kevin Duran of Troop 374 and Mark Puhlman of Troop 381.

Advancements to the rank of Life Scout were presented by William P. Davis, Scout Executive of the San Gabriel Valley Council, to Scott Jenkins and Mark Sedenquist of Troop 374.

Mr. Davis spoke briefly on plans for the future for Scouting in San Gabriel Valley, mentioning particularly camp development and improvement, the celebration of the golden anniversary of Scouting in the San Gabriel Valley in 1969, and the goal of serving 38,500 Scouts in 1976.

The attendance count, conducted by Dave Orswell, District vice chairman, resulted in Troop 374 again winning the cherished "Oscar," which is awarded at each Court of Honor to the unit having the highest percentage of parents and visitors present.

Following the retirement of the colors by members of Troop 377, the Scouters Benediction was given by Bill Hutchins.

Planning Unit

and to erect seven homes on the lots. The staff in its recommendation asked that the road be widened over that shown on the plan and that the dead end radius be increased to accommodate fire equipment.

The next matter taken up by the planner, following a brief recess, was a request by Mary Gould, owner of an apartment building between at 540 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. asking that the builder of the adjacent apartment complex at 522 W. Sierra Madre be allowed to not erect a fence between their two properties at the rear in order to facilitate the turning of cars into the parking area at the rear of her property.

After considerable discussion, the builder was asked to leave off the fence and to plant some screening materials at the forward portion of the properties. The owner of 540 was requested to raise the curbing between the two properties in that portion where the elevation varies between the two units.

The Planning group then passed a resolution asking the City Council to consider the paving of the lot at the southwest corner of Sierra Madre and Baldwin as coming under the Civic Center overlay if it should remain as a parking lot for more than one year.

City Council had granted permission for temporary use of the lot while it is awaiting to be sold or leased.

Public hearings on the storage of garbage receptacles in front or side yards was postponed until next meeting.

LEGAL NOTICE

SIERRA MADRE NEWS
V-633-682b

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to the provisions of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre, Section 9623, that the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre has fixed Tuesday, December 10, 1968, at the hour of 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 55 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on an appeal of variance previously granted by the Zoning Board to allow a swimming pool so located as to encroach 16 feet into the required 25-foot front yard and 9 feet into the required 15-foot yard separation and 3 feet into the minimum 10-foot side yard setback and to maintain a 6-foot high fence in the required front yard, a portion of said fence being on top of a concrete block wall, for property described as portions of Lots 5 and 6, Deutch Tract, further described as 20 West Grand View Avenue.

Application and map are on file in the office of the Secretary of the Planning Commission.

The application alleges that there are several circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other properties in the same district and vicinity; that the granting of a variance as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice of other property nor be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to persons in the vicinity thereof, in that the proposed variance, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the City Council may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose of said Zoning Code will be observed, public welfare and safety secured, and substantial justice done to all parties.

Interested persons may attend and be heard.

Groups May Join Christmas Carol Broadcast

The Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Department will again sponsor "Christmas Caroling" at Kersting Court between December 17 and December 23. KMAX is going to broadcast the program, live, from 7 to 8 p.m. Groups interested in participating in the Christmas Recreation Department by calling 355-7135, Extension 24, as soon as possible, so that arrangements can be scheduled with the radio station.

Times available: 7 to 7:30 p.m. or 7:30 to 8 p.m. Dates available: Tuesday, Dec. 17; Wednesday, Dec. 18; Thursday, Dec. 19; Friday, Dec. 20, and Monday, Dec. 23.

Sierra Madre has enjoyed this community Christmas activity in the past. Groups are urged to join with the City this year to further enrich the program.

At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Raymond (Elaine) Driemeyer on Fairview Terrace new officers for La Boutique for Cystic Fibrosis were elected. They were: Mrs. Fred Hodges, director, and Mrs. William Stone, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Anderson Announces His Sunday Sermon

Rev. Anderson's sermon title this coming Sunday at Sierra Madre Congregational Church will be "He Came and Is Coming." The service will be at 11 a.m. with Sunday school and Adult Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. In commenting on his sermon Rev. Anderson says:

"As we enter the Advent season of the church year when Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ let us think also of Christ's second coming. Too often his birthday gets so shrouded in wrapping paper and ribbons that it all seems as remote from reality as a fairy tale. But when we recognize that he is coming again, a second time, and our focus of attention is on the future, then the past becomes more realistic and meaningful."

"Everyone, even non-Christians know the basic events of Jesus' birth in a manger in Bethlehem, but all too many faithful Christians are at a loss when it comes to understanding Jesus' future return to this earth. He is coming back! Listen to St. Paul's word as he writes to Titus, 'denying ungodliness and worldly lusts we should live soberly, righteously and Godly in this present world, looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour, Jesus Christ.'"

"In the book of Acts, Luke records this promise to the disciples after Jesus had ascended into Heaven. 'This same Jesus, whom he have seen ascend into Heaven'

Lesson-Sermon Sunday Nov. 24

"Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man." This verse from the Epistle of James is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Related passages from the denominational textbook also will be read, among them the following: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow — thoughts which presented man a fallen, sick, sinning, and dying. The Christlike understanding of scientific being and perfect principle and idea — as the basis of thought and demonstration." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into Heaven."

Rev. Anderson concludes with: "As you look forward to Christmas look beyond to the day of Jesus' second coming. It will change your perspective, your thinking and your life."

At 5:30 p.m. the youth of the church will meet for a brief planning meeting before proceeding to Mt. Olive Lutheran Church where they will participate in a Folk Mass Communion Service. This service takes the traditional liturgy and places the words to modern tunes. Guitars replace the pipe organ for accompaniment.

Other activities for the week include the Tuesday evening Christian Adolescent Psychology class at 7:30, and the Wednesday evening 7:30 Mid-week Bible Hour. Children's choir will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 and Senior Choir will be held at 8 on Thursday evening.

Senior Citizens

The November 23 meeting of the Sierra Madre Senior Citizens' Club was called to order by Helen Hill, first vice president, at 11:45. A prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance were recited. "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here" were sung with Vivian Singleton at the piano. Roland Ridgeway collected the coffee donations.

Following a recess for luncheon, Frances Gardner distributed the door prizes. The secretary, Millie Freilinger, read the minutes of the previous meeting. The treasurer's report was made by Pearl Patterson. Lucy Fergin told of Lillian Jones making progress in her illness.

Mrs. Bernice Olson urged the members to bring their own table service next Saturday for the birthday celebration for October and November, also to take a sandwich. Games will be played. There was some discussion about their Christmas party to be held on December 14. Members to take a gift of at least 50 cents value for exchange.

There will be a meeting on December 21 for games. Mrs. Hill thanked Anna Ridgeway, Lola Bullock and Hazel Cowart for the lovely flowers. The group then adjourned for an afternoon of games.

long neglected need for recreational facilities in the community.

The Committee unanimously recommended that the Council approve the preliminary schematics for the building which will include two meeting rooms, a concession stand, a small office, rest rooms, a general game/lounge and a multi-purpose activities room. The total square footage for the project is estimated at approximately 5,400 square feet.

The Committee's recommendation included Council's approval of the preliminary schematic building plans completed by the architect and that the budget figure for the building be set at $100,000 with the architect to guarantee the project within 10% of that figure or make necessary changes at no cost to the City at the City's option. The project probably will be paid for from City reserve general funds in the form of a loan to the Park Fund.

In accordance with Council's desires, the building could go to bid as early as late February with construction to begin in early April and be completed by the end of June, 1969.

Rev. Stevens Announces Sunday Topic

The title of the sermon on Sunday, December 1, at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Rev. Margaret M. Stevens, minister, will be "Priming the Pump." This is membership Sunday at the church and the time of worship is 11 a.m. All are invited to join the congregation, infant and child care is provided during the service.

After a 15 minute service in the sanctuary at 11 a.m. every Sunday, children from pre-school through ninth grade go to their graded classes. High school youths and young adults hold their meetings on the first and third Sundays at 7 p.m.

Rev. Stevens conducts a class on "successful living" Thursdays at 11 a.m. All women are invited to attend.

WAKE UP COUNCILMEN --

any more money than they have this year. Still we will have 2000 more people to service, and the new teen center is bound to take considerably more in operation and maintenance funds, and where will it come from if they are taxed to their limit in 1969 for 30 years?

In his report he also states: "Police Facility. This building is planned for a department of 40 officers and clerical personnel."

Since dispatchers probably are considered clerical, this would leave a compliment of 36 police officers to service our 3.9 square miles of area. This would be 9 police officers per square mile, it is our remark that they would certainly need traffic supervisors to keep from running over each other. Further 36 officers would certainly require approximately 10 squad cars or maybe the purchase of station wagons so they could travel in groups.

At present a 17 man force, and Administrator Boehm states, "we are certainly the best policed city in California," the cost of operation of this department now stands at over $219,000 per year. You increase this to 40, and naturally you would figure that the cost of the Police facilities will also rise to about $450,000 per year and we are going to encumber future income to pay for the Civic Center. The more we think about the situation the more stupid the plan sounds.

But even after you think about this phase of the situation, we come to the statement in the report that $200,000 will be robbed from the WATER DEPARTMENT. On June 20, 1967, Councilman Wagner presented the Council with an Ordinance to raise the water rates in Sierra Madre 37 1/2 per cent. In a long speech before the Council and people he stated: "We have a 3 1/2-million dollar water system; this system is over 40 years old and the physical plant must be replaced in the coming years. This increase in water rates will accumulate the necessary funds to do so."

Citizen Paul Carter took the floor and elaborated on the necessity of increasing the water rates to keep our water system in a reasonable state of repair and replacement. The citizens shook their heads, but knew that the system must be kept in reasonable state of repair and replacement. During the past 1 1/2 years the Homeowners have been paying the 37 1/2 per cent increase in their water rates, and the money has been accumulating.

In 1968-69 budget, City Administrator Boehm saw fit to LIFT $60,000 from this fund to supplement the tax rate. This we think was fine, it gave relief to those who paid in the money to the tune of approximately 3c per $100 valuation. We agree that this could be done again from year to year, but SWIPE, ROB, OR STEAL, $200,000 from this fund to help finance a Civic Center is just more than we can stomach.

We are now faced with a 26-Million Dollar Bond issue by the San Gabriel Valley Water District, sometime in February of this coming year. This bond issue is to finance the building of a system to receive STATE WATER, in 1972. Sierra Madre will be faced with a partial payment of these bonds, estimated around $4-Million. It is our definite feeling that any surplus in the Water Department Funds, after repair and maintenance should be dedicated to relieving the Taxpayer of this additional burden.

If the Water Department does not need the revenue, then reduce the water bills so the homeowner will get relief.

Yes, Councilmen, Wake Up, the Party's All Over. We are asking that you — take back the running of your city, the duty that was delegated to you by the electorate. This City has many, many times turned down the "MANAGER" system of government, you have hired a City Administrator, return him to his duties. Your City will never allow a City Manager or City Administrator to build their Civic Center, but the City Council and the People can do it, and we all agree we need one, but not a "Marble Castle."

From the FIRE SIDE By One of the Boys

Well, seems that things have gotten dull around the fire barn and some of the Firefighters are looking elsewhere for activities. Two weeks ago Sunday, Secretary Firefighter Burleson was out on the San Bernardino Freeway instructing the County Firefighters how to fight a brush fire.

— SMVFD —
This past week, also on Sunday, he was chasing a "hit and run" for the Police Department. He was successful too, followed the car all around town until the Police caught up with him.

— SMVFD —
Firefighter Evans, not to be outdone by the Secretary, assisted the Sierra Madre Police last Sunday tracking down a bloodhound valued at $3500, which was reported stolen. Can you imagine Evans tracking a bloodhound. Someone should tell him that he has the procedure backward. Anyway, he and Officer Kolb could hear the animal baying around the Mira Monte reservoir, but as usual, a dollar short and a day late, the bloodhound decided to go home before the two reached her... no reward of course.

— SMVFD —
Of course, Captain Bobby Clark is getting his kicks out of picking up the impounded cars that the Police seem to be spotting all over town.

— SMVFD —
Firefighter Charley Peterson has been real busy lately checking on the girls that are evading the Police Curfew; gives them a sound talking too, offers to take them home, but ends up by them waving to him and saying "See you later Grandpa." It's always nice to have the young girls give you a friendly greeting.

— SMVFD —
Len Hall has made up his Christmas list and has asked Santa Claus to bring him a great big magnifying glass. Seems that Len has gotten interested in looking in the weeds for evidence and needs a little assistance. If he isn't careful wife, Shirley may give him all the assistance that he needs.

— SMVFD —
Of course Chief Charles Brown was kept quite busy this past week preventing the Fire Prevention from moving in with the Search and Rescue Team, but he handled it in the usual Charley Brown success method.

— SMVFD —
All of this, of course, is in full payment to our illustrious Police Force who so capably put out fires and do not disturb the Firefighters, especially at night and on weekends... The boys really appreciate the service.

— SMVFD —
The boys are all hopped up over the coming Saturday evening Dance, things are all set and ready to go. Each committee made its report at the regular meeting Friday evening, November 22, and all of the ends are securely tied up. It's going to be a ball, and those that miss it will surely be disappointed.

— SMVFD —
Most of the Firefighters wouldn't miss it for the

Also available will be the Peanuts and Joan Walsh Anglund lines of gifts for children, reproduction of antique silver filled with homemade candy, plus books, aprons, steamed puddings, and a wealth of other items.

General chairman of the Christmas Caravan is Robert V. Gibson. In charge of the homes and boutiques are Trilba Gherkins (Mrs. Glenn A.) and Diane Hansen (Mrs. John T.) of Trilba Gherkins Interiors of Pasadena. Under their direction, each family on the tour is preparing their own distinctive decorations, incorporating family treasures with new ideas.

Two of the homes on the tour are in the Sierra Madre Villa area of Pasadena, the Robert B. Hanssens home at 1590 Old House Road and the Francis J. Howell residence at 1916 Windover Road. The other three homes open to the tour are: The L. Grant Robinson home at 995 Singingwood Drive; the Claron L. Oakley residence at 2150 Kinneloa Canyon Road; and the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ashby at 3845 Fairmeade Road in the lower Hastings Ranch area of Pasadena.

Tour tickets are $3.50, or $5 for a Mr. and Mrs. ticket. They will be available at the doors of the homes, or can be obtained by calling Mrs. Roy Worral, 351-9414, or Mrs. Albin Werner, 794-1610.

Strategy

It's Tim's move, and he is taking a long time thinking it over. In chess, if you're a good player, you don't play quickly. If you do, your opponent may outwit you.

Military strategy, they say, is based on the rules of chess. So are many of the "higher games" in business and finance. Yet, when it comes to life itself, the rules of chess apply in only a limited way. In life, you can't be totally objective. You can't exist on logic alone.

The Church teaches that though we surely need logic in order to live successfully, we also need compassion, tolerance, love, understanding, and the strength that comes with faith.

Although life is not a game, we must have the help and strength of the Church to discover those rules that will determine our ultimate destiny.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

Editorially... Speaking Speaker of the House!

There will be a new Speaker of the California State Assembly after the lawmakers convene in Sacramento in January, on the basis of the last election results.

In all likelihood Tracey's Robert T. Monagan will take over the reins for the GOP as Speaker from Inglewood's Jesse Unruh. Unruh has held the Speakership of the last seven years and in that period, most partisans of both parties agree, has built a well deserved reputation as a legislative expert.

Based on the election results, the Republicans will take control of the Assembly for the first time in 10 years with 41 members to the Democrats' 39, a change from the present division of 42 Democrats and 38 Republicans. The State Senate remains evenly divided between the two parties with 20 Democrats and 20 Republicans.

The probable elevation of the able, articulate Monagan to the Speakership should make Governor Ronald Reagan's task in securing legislative approval of his Creative Society program somewhat easier. Obviously Speaker Unruh and the Democrats wouldn't make the going easy and obviously the Republicans will do their best to make it easier.

The Republicans, while doing the Democrats no favor in capturing the Assembly, may have made Speaker Unruh's partisan role somewhat simpler, as Minority Leader Unruh can be expected to swing much more freely for and against the various programs before the Legislature than as Speaker. In the doing, even though his legislative influence will be lessened, Unruh may be in a stronger position to build for a possible gubernatorial run in 1970 against Governor Reagan.

While the state election results wouldn't be responsible, it is possible that the national election results could bring about a shift in the State Senate, too. President-elect Richard Nixon's victory could result in Lt. Governor Robert Finch being asked to serve in the Nixon Administration. Finch long has been one of Nixon's closest and most trusted advisors and it may well be that Nixon will urge Finch to join the Administration.

Should that prove to be the case—and should Lt. Governor Finch decide to serve in the national administration—the office of Lt. Governor would become vacant and under California law would be filled by the President Pro Tempore of the State Senate, a spot held by Fresno's veteran Democrat Hugh Burns. If Burns becomes Lt. Governor in the parlay described—and it might be remembered that Burns endorsed Richard Nixon for President—the State Senate membership would become 20 Republicans and 19 Democrats until such time as an election could be held to fill the vacancy. Under these circumstances the Republicans would have an opportunity to organize the Senate as well as the Assembly.

At times the domino theory in politics is as intriguing as it is in diplomacy. The problem, of course, is in guessing which way the dominoes will fall.

Not the Answer

In a discussion before the Commonwealth Club of California in San Francisco an eminent psychiatrist had this to say about the "teen-age" problem, the problem of illegitimate pregnancies, drug addiction, crime:

"The underlying problem is the failure of our adult society to permit the adolescent a real genuine, honest-to-goodness part in the real-life action of living."

The speaker, Dr. Roy W. Menninger, head of the famous Menninger Foundation, suggested lowering the voting age to 17, among other things. And he cited the plight of the 15-year-old:

"Except for going to school, virtually nothing that he can do is legal. He can't quit school, he can't work, he can't drink, smoke, drive—except to and from school—he can't marry or vote. He cannot, in fact, participate in any of the adult virtues, vices, activities or responsibilities."

That there are many inequities in modern childraising is obvious to most thoughtful parents. But we wonder, with them, if participating in adult virtues and vices is a particularly good way to correct them. And we wonder about all the great and good and decent men and women who, though similarly deprived, have during generations past become Presidents and doctors and judges and business executives and priests and civic leaders and just plain hardworking good citizens.

Something needs to be done, no doubt, but handing premature adulthood to teen-agers hardly seems the answer.

New Use For Us

Newspapermen are accustomed to cracks about their product being used to wrap fish and line bird cages. And there was that social dower who refused to let a society photographer take her picture because she didn't want her portrait on the bottom of a garbage can.

We're used to it, but it is pleasant to learn that the brain child over which we labor so hard has, at least in San Francisco, a further contribution to make to society after its original one of informing and enlightening.

The Boy City's two scavenger companies have worked out with Mayor Alioto and the Multi-Culture Institute there a program of newspaper collection, proceeds of which will add to the funds financing the Institute's unique and very successful educational project. This is a plan whereby children of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds are brought together for general instruction, but also are given special separate sessions with their own groups in which they learn of group differences and specific cultural heritages.

It's not surprising that the Institute program has wide support in San Francisco's official, business and private sectors. And it is good to know that the local papers not only can support the project in news and editorial columns but also indirectly in a less glamorous but very practical manner.

Chow Generation

It's beginning to look as if the minority revolution is moving out of the streets and schoolrooms into the kitchen.

In Berkeley the schools have granted demands of a group of Negro students for a menu including "soul" food—chitlins, corn bread, ham, lima beans and hominy grits.

Merced County, Mexican-Americans in Livingston High School picked up the culinary cue, asking for Mexican food.

As the San Francisco Examiner suggests, editorial tongue in cheek, it may not be long before sweet-sour pork may be the issue of a student uprising in some of that city's almost 100 percent Chinese elementary schools; tempura in the Japanese-American institutions.

Hmmm! Smells like quite a stew being cooked up in the great American melting pot.

DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Editor's Note: While Dr. Henry V. Witt is on leave we will present several guest columnist's viewpoint on various affairs for which this newspaper takes responsibility.

While many of the problems facing the new President are truly nationwide in scope, some of the most critical ones involve a small number of big cities. The situation in New York City, the country's biggest metropolis, is particularly acute.

New York City has been deteriorating in terms of law and order for a number of years. But the deterioration has been speeded-up in recent months, with a wave of strikes, slowdowns and general strife.

New York's school children have missed a good part of their classroom work this fall as a result of three illegal strikes by the city's teachers. The teachers, for their part, are in a state of fear. A decision to decentralize the schools has opened the doors to domination of several decentralized districts by Black Power advocates. Teachers have been assaulted by parents who are in sympathy with the Black Power leaders. Schools have been broken into by irate factions in the school disputes.

New York's police men, who keep the city from lapsing into total savagery, feel that they have been betrayed by the spineless municipal leadership of Mayor John Lindsay, the fashionable "liberal." As a result, they recently engaged in a slowdown as a gesture of protest.

In summary, New York City is in a terrible mess. Not only is there chaos in the schools and a law and order problem in the streets, but the welfare situation is out of hand. During the past year, leaders of a welfare recipients union urged reliefers to apply for every conceivable type of aid. When the city finally cut back certain specialized welfare programs, and combined welfare payments to individuals and families in a single package, some of the reliefers stormed the welfare offices and damaged public records.

It now turns out that in the last fiscal year the city budgeted more for welfare than for education. The percentage allotted to welfare was more than double what was budgeted for police and fire protection.

This situation isn't a matter solely for the concern of New Yorkers. Fifty per cent of New York's welfare costs are borne by the federal government — that is, by taxpayers throughout the country.

side from taxes they pay for welfare in New York City, Americans elsewhere in the nation have cause for concern about the metropolis because it is the principal financial and commercial center in the nation. The continued deterioration and disruption of New York City could adversely affect business in many parts of the United States. Americans simply can't allow their largest city to be plunged into chaos and overcome by savagery in the streets. Nor is New York the only city that is getting out of hand. Several other big cities have become bottomless pits insofar as welfare is concerned. They have become the focus of rioting and other forms of strife.

What is to be done about these cities that are on the verge of total breakdown? This is a question the new Congress will have to ponder. New York City and several other cities are in — Please turn to Page 11

ARTIE DEE
Transportation Editor

I mentioned this in another column but it bears repeating. Traffic is most always bad, but during the month of December it's worse than awful. Not only do you have trouble driving, but parking is a real mess. The smart thing to do is ride the bus to do your looking or shopping. Why should you go through the nervous frustrations of downtown traffic when RTD pays a guy to do it for you? If you are not familiar with the RTD system, send for a map, or if you need a timetable, drop me a line.

I received a letter the other day from a woman who recently moved to Glendale from New York. She wanted to know why the bus fares were so high, when she could ride almost anywhere in New York for 20c. I can understand her concern, especially if she was never in California, but this is what I told her. The RTD is the last remaining major transportation system in the United States that operates entirely out of fare box revenue. New York is able to maintain a low fare because the system is subsidized from public monies. San Francisco, as an example, has a 15c fare but that system is also subsidized by tax dollars. The RTD must charge more money to offset this public support.

Night racing started at Hollywood Park November 12th. This should be a boon to all those people who, because of their jobs, wives, or numerous other reasons, can't get to the park during daylight racing. RTD has service from Hollywood and Los Angeles, both local and special. Line 57 from Hollywood will have two (2) special 57 line flyers leaving Hollywood at 5:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. Line 57 flyers from downtown L.A. will leave every 15 minutes from 5:10 p.m. to 6:25 p.m. In addition local 5 line service will operate. From Los Angeles, and local 85 line service will operate from Hollywood.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY — Opportunity knocks only once, but temptation bangs on the door for years.

Q. Can you send me a timetable of the service to Ontario Airport. My husband makes several trips a month and it would be much easier for him. We live in the Covina area almost to the Glendora City limits. Mrs. J.J.

A. There are two lines he can use, the 53 line that goes through Covina and the 60 line that stops at Eastland. I will send him both timetables and he can work out his own route. If he uses the 53 line he will have to change in Pomona to the 60 line.

Q. Please tell me how I can reach Pasadena on New Years, so I can see the parade. It's early, but I want to be ready. I live in Baldwin Park. Mrs. A.C.T.

A. There will probably be two ways you can reach the parade area based on last year's RTD service. You can ride the 53 line to El Monte and get special buses there or you can go to Eastland for special service there. Watch this column for a story about the New Years service.

Q. How is the best way to go to Whittier from Monterey Park? Mr. A.Z.

A. There are two or three ways, probably the best and quickest would be to take the 63 line to Garfield, change to the 61 line to Whittier Blvd. and the 72 to Whittier. Another way is to take the 63 to El Monte Station and the 38 to Whittier.

Q. How long does it take by bus to go to San Bernardino from Azusa? Mrs. P.T.

A. The 64 line takes about 40 minutes to Pomona and the 60 line flyer takes an hour and a half. So your trip could take around two hours and 20 or 25 minutes.

Send your questions to Artie Dee, Transportation Editor, care of this newspaper. All questions will be answered in the column, or by mail. A system map will be sent FREE to each person writing in. NO RETURN STAMPS OR STAMPED ENVELOPES ARE NECESSARY.
